

Full name:

Level : 3MS

Duration: 60 minutes

Input:The Little Reciter

Abdelrahman Seed is a young reciter from Algeria. He was born in Mila and is a 12 year old pupil. He studies at a school for the blind. Abdelrahman has been blind since birth, but he can recite the Quran beautifully and has a remarkable voice. He is kind, patient, and intelligent. Abdelrahman won the first prize in the Mazemir Dawood Competition for young reciters. He is interested in religious studies and aspires to become a great Imam in the future. Abdelrahman truly symbolizes patience and hard work for all children in Algeria.

From the textbook, year 3

Reading comprehension:

Task 1: Read each statement and decide if it's True, False, or Not Mentioned in the text. (3 points)

1. Abdelrahman Seed was born in Algiers.
2. He attends a school that specializes in supporting visually impaired students.
3. Abdelrahman is 14 years old.

Task 2: Read the text and Answer the following questions (2 points)

1. Does Abdelrahman aspire to become an Imam?
2. What competition did Abdelrahman win?

Task 3: Lexis (2 points)

1. Find synonyms in the text for these words:

- Intelligent =
- Patient =

2. Find opposites in the text for these words:

- Young ≠
- Beautiful ≠

Task two: Mastery of language:

Task 1: Supply the punctuation and capitalization in the following sentence: (2 points)

abdelrahman seed is a young reciter from algeria who inspires many people

Task 2: Reorder the words to get coherent sentences: (3 points)

1. Abdelrahman / the / Quran / recites / beautifully / always.
2. compete / blind / pupils / The / never / give up.
3. "inspires / always / Abdelrahman / children / Algerian

Task 3: tick the correct pronunciation of can based on how it's used in the sentence. (2 points)

1. "Abdelrahman can recite beautifully." ☐ /kæn/ ☐ /kən/
2. "Only in competitions, can he use his remarkable voice to its fullest." ☐ /kæn/ ☐ /kən/
3. "can he inspire many young people?" ☐ /kæn/ ☐ /kən/
4. "yes, he can." ☐ /kæn/ ☐ /kən/

Part Three: Written Expression (6 pts)

Using these clues, write a paragraph that describes Mohamed Boudiaf, his background, achievements, and why he is admired in Algeria.

- Name of the figure: Mohamed Boudiaf
- Place of birth: M'Sila, Algeria
- Profession or achievement: One of Algeria's independence leaders and former president
- Personality traits: Brave, determined, patriotic
- Interests: Politics, serving his country
- Aspirations or contributions: Worked for a free and united Algeria, remembered as a hero in Algerian history

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Teacher: AMOUR RABAH