THE FIRST TERM ENGLISH TEST N°1

Read the text and do the activities below.

TEXT:

Sandra Fellici , from Italy , reflects on traditional good manners for varied situations and discusses how fast manners are changing . She says :

“I’m filled with childhood memories. When I was five years old, my grandmother , who was the best grandmother in the world , lived with my family .At the time , my father had a business , and my mother used to help him . That’s why I had to stay all day long with my grandmother. She was very kind and loyal to me. (§1)

Unfortunately , in our society today , what we call good manners , or good etiquette, are changing . New generations are becoming more and more impolite. (§2)

When I was a child , I used to go out with my parents. I used to stay close to them and behave in an educated way ; but some kids nowadays make a lot of noise , go everywhere , and are less respectful towards adults. (§3)

In my language , we have two different ways of addressing people . One is the intimate second form that is generally used with family members , friends and people of the same age ; one is more formal , in which the third person is used to address people . I would use the formal way when I addressed elderly people or people I didn’t know , but young generations are now using the intimate second form everywhere and with everybody . (§4)

I think that this behaviour is due to globalization and to the use of the English language that has only one form , but I don’t consider it polite and I cannot get used to these manners.” (§5)
